IMPACT

... tying it all together

Increase number of services and applications operated by European companies, especially small businesses and entrepreneurs.

Strengthen links with other, bottom-up programmes and initiatives, supported by regional, national and European policies and funds.

Create opportunities for entrepreneurs, notably SMEs, by promoting new market openings, providing access to valuable datasets and direct interactions with users, creating new businesses in rural areas.

Increase number of platforms, applications, business processes and innovative business models validated via large-scale piloting.

Overcome the digital divide between rural and urban areas, and to develop the potential offered by connectivity and digitisation of rural areas.

Improve quality of life in rural areas, higher standard of living and services for citizens.

AURORAL

AURORAL REFERENCE ARCHITECTURE

The aim is to bridge vertical services on different rural domains with horizontal services and online digital marketplaces.

Different stakeholders are allowed to cooperate in a seamless and transparent manner.
